

Boston American Herald, 15 October 1787

The Printer of the HERALD, informs his correspondents, and the publick, that his paper shall be literally FREE and OPEN to all parties, and UNINFLUENCED by none; as he is satisfied, that the cause of TRUTH, and good government, will never be injured by the most perfect freedom of enquiry; and that the real merit of the Constitution lately offered to the people for their consideration requires not the aid of any uncommon expedient to secure their favour.
